

Sara Korniewicz

Sara Korniewicz is a Paralegal at Goldstein Hall, where she is responsible for aiding the Firm's transactional and litigation team on a variety of matters.

Prior to joining Goldstein Hall, Sara worked as a teaching assistant in Five Points Correctional Facility as part of Cornell's Prison Education Program. She also served as a Prisoners' Rights Intern at Washington Lawyers' Committee, where she assisted incarcerated individuals wishing to challenge their conditions of confinement.

Sara graduated from Cornell University with a Bachelor of Arts in Psychology and with concentrations in Inequality Studies and Law and Society.

Paralegal

New York City

skorniewicz@goldsteinhall.com

646.768.4131

Education

Cornell University, B.A., Psychology